WELCOME TO MOGĀ

Inspired by the bold spirit of 1920s Japan, MOGĀ is where the modern girl meets the golden age of cocktails. Behind our discreet doors lies a world of high energy, low lights, and timeless indulgence.

Sip, share, and step into Kiyoko's journey — where every drink tells a story, and every night is an adventure.

CONCEPT

Once upon a time in Tokyo, there lived a young woman named Kiyoko. She was a “Moga” — short for modan gaaru, or modern girl — a new generation of Japanese women who embraced freedom, fashion, and forward thinking.

But Kiyoko wasn't just modern. She was restless, with a spark in her eye and a longing for more than what Ginza's jazz bars and café culture could offer. So, she packed her suitcase, slipped on her cloche hat, and set off on an adventure to explore the world.

This menu is a tribute to her journey.

Presented in the style of a whimsical children's storybook, each page follows Kiyoko as she steps into a new country, soaking in the flavours, cultures, and sensations that await her. In every destination, she discovers inspiration — and from that, a cocktail is born. Each creation reflects the essence of the place she visits, reimagined through a Japanese lens — a subtle nod to her roots in every sip.

EPILOGUE

And so, after wandering the world with curiosity as her compass, Kiyoko found herself in Singapore — a city alive with culture, creativity, and possibility. Here, in the vibrant heart of the Lion City, she finally felt at home. Rooted yet restless, she poured her stories, inspirations, and spirit into a bar of her own. She called it MOGĀ — a place where every cocktail carries a memory of her travels, reimagined with the boldness of today and a touch of her Japanese soul.

Welcome to her world.
Welcome to MOGĀ.
